

ENGLAND SENDS GERMANY ULTIMATUM

GERMAN AND FRENCH AIR FLEETS IN MID-AIR BATTLE

Paris, Aug. 4.—Apparently aiming to destroy Paris with bombs dropped from the air, a fleet of German dirigibles and aeroplanes dashed across the border at midnight. A squadron of eight French aeroplanes was rushed from Rheims to attack the invaders.

The two fleets came upon each other near Demmarny Sur Yevre. The German aeroplanes fought off the Frenchmen while the dirigibles fled, then the German aeroplanes also fled.

GERMANY DECLARES WAR ON BELGIUM

Berlin, Aug. 4.—Germany declares war on Belgium, following that country's refusal to aid in the movement of German troops, and invasion of Belgium territory has already begun.

The Minister of Finance introduced a bill appropriating five billion for war.

In a skirmish near the Hohensal, seven Russian soldiers were killed and fifty were taken prisoners; Germans captured three towns in Poland.

All trains out of Berlin are suspended except for the movement of troops. The French ambassador has been handed his passports.

H. M. Snell, of Birmingham, returned to his home this morning after spending a few days with his brother, J. M. Snell, on Rose Hill. This was the first time they had seen each other in thirteen years.

Mrs. E. A. Sanders of Abbeville, spent yesterday in the city with her brothers, Messrs. J. M. and H. M. Snell.

BACK TO GEORGIA.

Tom Jackson, said to be an escaped convict from Mitchell county, Ga., left for that state today in the custody of an officer. He was arrested by a local officer.

AUTHORITY OF PROBATE JUDGE IS QUESTIONED

State Will Appeal From Decision of Judge Crawford.—Alleged Tiger Fight Stays in Courts.

Questioning the validity of the act of Probate Judge A. C. Crawford in discharging nine defendants charged with violating the prohibition laws, the State will take appeal, according to Lawyer W. L. Lee of Columbia, of counsel for the State. The proper papers in such a procedure will probably be filed during the day.

The Probate Judge was served with a writ of prohibition yesterday, issued from the Circuit Court, in which it was stipulated "you are hereby enjoined and prohibited from ordering any bond or authorizing the taking of any bond," etc., and the defendants were then named. A writ of prohibition was also served on Sheriff Hay.

Despite the writs of prohibition, Judge Crawford heard the case and dismissed the defendants shortly before 8 o'clock last night. The issuance of the writs probably came as a surprise to Lawyers A. E. Pace and B. G. Farmer, for the defense, who at once made applications for immediate trials, which were granted.

With the discharge of nine defendants charged with violating the prohibition law, the fight against alleged blind tiger operators was given a sensational turn Monday night. The defendants were given their freedom by Probate Judge A. C. Crawford, in whose court habeas corpus writs had been obtained.

Lawyers for the prosecution played their leading card of the day when writs of prohibition were obtained from the Circuit Court, instructing Sheriff B. O. Hay not to release the prisoners on bond for their appearance in court August 5. Following the serving of these writs, A. E. Pace and B. G. Farmer of the defense asked that the defendants be given immediate trial. Judge

GERMAN CRUISERS CAPTURE BRITISH STEAMER

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 4.—German cruisers Leipzig and Nuremberg have captured the British steamer Queen Maud, off Magdalena Bay. On receipt of the report the British warship Shearwater cleared for action and left at full speed for the west coast of Mexico where the British ships Algerine and Rainbow are threatened by the same German cruisers.

Crawford granting the proceeding. Papers were hurriedly drawn, and Lawyers W. L. Lee, O. L. Tompkins and E. S. Thigpen for prosecution, were given notice, which they promptly ignored. The cases were decided without the prosecution being officially represented.

The crusade started a few days ago when warrants were issued by a justice of the peace, and made returnable to the Circuit Court. The defendants then procured writs of habeas corpus from the Probate Court. The cases were set for trial Monday. The defendants discharged by Judge Crawford are Frank Barlett, C. C. Bush, George Smith, Will Griffin, G. R. Thompson, Charlie Trautwein, A. C. Cox, A. M. Stevens and Mack Shivers.

Much interest is centered in the outcome of the case, and a keen legal battle is expected between the lawyers, both sides being well represented. Lawyers for the prosecution, whose next move it is, would issue no statement last night, but indicated the controversy is not ended.

OPENING PANAMA CANAL DELAYED ACCOUNT WAR

Washington, Aug. 4.—Owing to the European war, opening of the Panama Canal will be delayed in order to prevent possible complications arising from the passage of ships through the ditch.

U. S. To Send $3,000,000 In Gold To Stranded Americans

Washington, Aug. 3.—The United States will send three million dollars in gold to the stranded Americans in Europe. This decision was reached by the administration today. Relief vessels will fly the American flag.

There are twenty thousand Americans in Paris, some penniless and some selling their jewelry to buy food. There are twenty-five thousand in London, many sleeping in parks.

Washington was officially notified that no Americans would be allowed to leave Germany until the army is completely mobilized.

ANNOUNCES FOR COUNCIL.

J. B. Martin has announced his candidacy for a position on the Board of Aldermen from Ward 1, to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of L. P. Kirkland who will go to Florida. Mr. Martin is a well known Dothan business man, and has many friends.

CARBAJAL PREPARES FOR WAR WITH CONSTITUTIONALISTS

Mexico City, Aug. 4.—Provisional President Carbajal is actively preparing for war with the Constitutionalists, as a result of Carranza's refusal to grant amnesty to Huerta followers. The situation is critical.

PYTHAGORAS LODGE MEETING

Pythagoras Lodge No. 659 will hold a regular communication tonight at 8:00 o'clock. All qualified brethren are invited to meet with us.

B. W. Clendinen & Co., sell gasoline for 15c.—CASH.

Holt Simonton, Esq., of Birmingham, got back to his original home several days ago. He went up to Abbeville last night with Mrs. H. B. Simonton and children. Mrs. Simonton, together with Miss Daisy Simonton, has just returned from a week's delightful outing at Panama City.

GOOD ACT AT DELITE.

The Delite theatre, for the first time in a long spell, had a vaudeville act last night consisting of enough variety to please the audiences. The attendance was good. The players were J. C. Thomas and the Leighton Sisters. The jokes, or at least a number of them, were really new in Dothan. Many who attended the show expressed themselves as pleased with the performance.

TREASURE SHIP RETURNS; WAS CHASED BY BRITISH VESSEL

Bar Harbor, Maine, Aug. 4.—Vaporously reported to have been captured by British war vessels and arrived at various European ports, the German steamer Kron-Prinzessin Cecelle, the eleven million dollar treasure ship put into this port at six o'clock this morning.

The giant liner which left New York Tuesday was nine hundred miles off Plymouth when ordered by wireless to turn about and run for the nearest American port. She plunged full speed through rough sea and fog. There was much excitement aboard. She was chased yesterday afternoon by an unknown British warship.

The gold on board the Kron-Prinzessin Cecelle will be returned to shippers in New York.

$54,000,000 Daily Cost To Finance European War

A daily expenditure of $61,000,000!

That is the estimated cost of armed conflict between France, Russia, Germany and Austria. When England and the Balkan nations included it would bring the total to a much higher sum.

At the time of the Russo-Japanese conflict there was much discussion of a possible European war, although no one accepted it seriously at that time. M. Jules Roche, the famous French statistician, however, studied the problem carefully and estimated that a war involving the four nations would cost $100,000,000 the first two months, or $6,000,000 a day each.

Most of the conclusions arrived at by M. Roche were based on figures of expenditures for previous wars. He allowed for the difference in cost for modern warfare is much more costly even than warfare at the time of the Franco-Prussian war. His calculations may be thus summarized:

In January, 1871, the actual cost per day to the French Treasury, according to the Boyen-Lajardelle official report, was 16,000,000 francs (or $2,200,000); this for 600,000 men under arms. The actual cost per day of every man under arms during the entire period of the war was exactly 13 francs 88 centimes into the costs of forage and of keep of horses, which are usually figured at the rate of say one dollar a day for each horse. M. Roche did not go. But even with the figures for the war of 1870-71 before him, he admitted that it was no easy matter to estimate the financial expenditure of a great war that might happen in our times. He continued: "Conditions generally have considerably changed within the last thirty years, and warfare is now far more expensive. To begin with, the number of men under arms in France, on a declaration of war, would be far greater than in 1870. France then began by putting 600,000 men into the field; but in the next great war in which she may be engaged, her military organization is such that within 48 hours she can mobilize, in round figures, 2,000,000 men and 600,000 horses and mules. The first troops to be called upon would be the thirteen classes of active and active reserve troops. Each 'class' numbers 160,000 men, so that the actual number of men to be mobilized at once would be 2,080,000. Against this the Germans can pit 2,550,000 men, the Austrians 1,300,000 men, and Italy 1,200,000 men.

Considering that if France, Russia, Germany, Austria and Great Britain went to war there would be somewhere near 10,000 men in the armies alone, not to mention the navies of the powers nor the armies of Serbia, Romania, Montenegro, Greece and other small nations either now involved or likely to become involved, it can be seen that M. Roche's estimate in reality is a conservative one as applied to the present situation when M. Roche did not figure on Great Britain or the Balkan nations.

The estimates of M. Roche are based on an outlay of $3.12 a day for each man in each army. It may be that M. Roche has far underestimated the cost. Dr. Charles Richet, a statistician of the University of Paris, published a very exhaustive calculation at the time of the Balkan War in which $54,000,000 was the estimated daily expenditure. Dr. Richet estimates the expenditures as follows, if Germany, England, France, Russia, Italy, Austria and Romania were all engaged:

Provision of troops	$12,000,000
Feeding of horses	1,500,000
Pay	4,250,000
Wages, arsenals and harbors	1,000,000
Mobilization	2,000,000
Transport of foodstuffs, weapons, etc.	4,000,000
Ammunition
Infantry	4,000,000
Artillery	1,250,000
Ship artillery	275,000
Fitting out of army	4,000,000
Ambulance service	500,000
Movement of ships	500,000
Deficit in taxes	10,000,000
Support for population, without means	6,750,000
Requisitions damage to towns, bridges, etc.	2,000,000
TOTAL	$54,125,000

On this basis if a general European war lasted only as long as the brief Franco-Prussian war in 1870, the outlay would exceed five thousand million dollars.

Fire caught in two places in the store of F. C. Bartlette, in Five Points, about 12:30 o'clock this morning, but its origin is unknown. The Fire Department went to the scene, and Fire Chief Zigler says fire was found under a desk at the rear of the building and under a counter between the front and rear of the store. The loss is not known, but is supposed to be small.

$500,000 For Dothan Banks to Handle Crops

No Tightness Will Be Felt Here On Account of War

There will be no tightness in money matters in Dothan, and Houston county. The European war will not be the cause of tying up business in this particular section.

Three or four years ago, after the financial panic of 1907, the bankers of the country got together and urged the importance of some safety along this line. As a result, the Aldrich-Vreeland act passed the congress which makes it impossible for such another panic to come. There is an organization of bankers in Alabama known as the National Currency Association and Mr. G. H. Malone, of the First National Bank is a member. This organization recently held a meeting in Birmingham, and Mr. Malone, who represented the Dothan banks, has just returned. He reports that the banks here will have at their command $500,000 for the handling of the crops. The Aldrich-Vreeland act provides "that the emergency money can only be issued through the National Currency Association. Just at this time when there is more or less demoralization on account of the war talk, this money for Dothan will help wonderfully.

SOME PRIMARY

REFORMS.

Mobile Register.

A correspondent, "X. Y. Z." addresses to the Montgomery Advertiser a letter on "The Political Outlook."

Evidently, "X. Y. Z." is no novice in observing Alabama politics; for his analysis of the many distributing factors is acute. By way of foreplay he sees a combination of Lily White Republicans, Woman Suffrage and perhaps Prohibitionists, with Captain Hobson as the leader; but this is guess work; any one is privileged to judge in it.

The correspondent is right in the main, however, when he shows that what is called the Democratic party in Alabama is not in a healthy condition, nor strong enough to resist a shock. He sees it weakened by the excessive cost of the primary system and by the fact that in the primary there are bitter personal contests between Democrats; also there is no strict definition of the right to vote in a primary; so that Republicans vote therein as well as Democrats. He says, "We want a primary system the exact counterpart of the elective system. If an unnaturalized foreigner, a minor or a felon votes at the general election, he is made liable to the penalty of the law. If a man of one party votes at an opposing primary, he should be made liable to the penalty fixed by law. The 'down bar' party primary is false and should be legally interdicted."

"X. Y. Z." thinks the state should take charge of the primary the same as it does of the election, and pay all expenses. It seems ridiculous to him that in a Democratic state and under the aegis of the Democratic party, a poor man has no chance in a Democratic primary; also it is obnoxious that candidates for governor should spend more money to get the nomination than the office will pay during a four-year term. "X. Y. Z." is right in proposing that the state should have control of the primary, should pay the expense and enforce the laws; and should also strictly limit the amount of money candidates may expend in promotion of their candidacy. It might be a good idea to designate also the ways in which the money may be spent, and the apportionment to each such way; absolutely forbidding the use of money in other ways, and penalizing any violation of the laws on the subject. Another useful regulation would be one that would bring the primary election into close relation with the election, and limit it as to time, so as to have the whole matter begun and finished in two or three months' time. A twelve-month campaign such as we passed through recently is absolutely detrimental to the party and much so to the people.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I labored till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

WHAT IS PUBLIC SENTIMENT?

Howe's Monthly.

In Public Sentiment a worthy thing representing the best people, or is it a vicious thing representing the idle men who sit around barbers' shops and drinking places?

I don't believe that busy, worthy, useful people have much to do with forming Public Sentiment. I believe Public Sentiment is always worse than actual conditions. Public sentiment favors anarchy, yet the sober, thoughtful people have so far been able to prevent anarchy.

The voice of the people, or public sentiment, is not the voice of God. Right does not assert itself naturally. Members of the human family are members of a mob, and decency and order are due to the influence of strong men who know that decency and order are best for the general good. These men of superior intelligence and force have been able to control public affairs, after a fashion, but they have never been able to control public sentiment.

It must be that public sentiment is rotten to the core, or it wouldn't demand what the newspapers gave their readers in the recent Colorado war. The newspapers give the people exactly what they want; if there is rot in the newspapers, it is printed in response to a persistent public demand. Get rid of the notion that the newspapers are leaders; they are followers, and seven-tenths of the editors are ashamed of what the people demand.

Get rid of the notion, also, that editors are big-hearted men who are leading the people out of the wilderness; they are leading them back into the wilderness, because public sentiment demands it.

Our laws and our institutions are better than public sentiment; the real people are superior to public sentiment, which is created by one-third, and the poorer third, of the people.

The real people are respectable and decent. Public sentiment is not. It is public sentiment that is responsible for public extravagance, war, and for the tiresome, foolish and dishonest politicians. The real people protest against public abuses; you hear this protest from the decent people every hour of every day. The real people know a ridiculous, silly thing when they see it, but members of the Public Sentiment mob have very little intelligence, little sense of humor, and take foolish things with great seriousness.

There is no doubt that public sentiment clamored for Theodore Roosevelt, but when it came to a vote, he received something like a quarter of the votes cast.

Public sentiment rarely wins, because it is usually wrong.

Los Angeles newspapers, formerly conservative, are now so sensational that there is general complaint as far east as New York. Asked for an explanation, a Los Angeles editor said:

"Hearst."

In an evil day, William Randolph Hearst established a newspaper at Los Angeles, and satisfied public sentiment. The other papers followed his example.

Hearst runs newspapers in half a dozen different cities, and has an influence on half the papers of the country.

The real people—and they are in the majority—are fairer than the newspapers and public sentiment. Public sentiment is a noisy, nasty thing that must be apologized for and kept down.

Public sentiment is powerful and dictates to a certain extent; but the real people pare its claws. If they did not, the country would have gone to the devil long ago.

It won't do to say that public sentiment is no regularly opposed to fairness because of virtue. That is a silly explanation, since we all know the men and women who create public sentiment are not as good as those modest people who say little about public affairs, and who work rather than campaign. The vital thing about public sentiment is not decency, but a lack of it.

Public sentiment undoubtedly favored war with Mexico. But the real people began asserting themselves and prevented it.

The real people are the Sober Second Thought, which always modifies and purifies the demands of public sentiment. But this Sober Second Thought is so silly that much mischief is done before it acts.

A SERVANT OF THE PUBLIC.

Mobile Register.

Congressman S. A. Witherspoon recently achieved fame as the latter day incarnation of that honest man Diogenes was looking for no unsuccessfully. Mr. Witherspoon turned back into the federal treasury some eight dollars, alleging that he was not entitled to it, not being at his post as a congressman for four days. Now comes Mr. Witherspoon and further distinguishes himself. The Mississippi Messenger at Shubuta made note of this unprecedented exhibition of honesty on the part of a conscientious congressman, and stated that Mr. Witherspoon was away on "private business."

Mr. Witherspoon now writes the editor of the Messenger:

"I have no private business. My law practice which was my only business, was given up when I was elected to congress. At that time, however, I had quite a number of cases on hand, and I began the trial of one of these in November, 1911, believing that the trial would end in time for me to reach Washington at the beginning of the session, but it was so protracted that I was four days late in arriving here. This is the correct time of the incident to which you refer, and if you will kindly correct the mistake it will remove the impression from the minds of your readers that I now have private business, on account of which I absent myself from congress."

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother so Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

At all druggists.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advice Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," in plain wrapper, M.C. 128

Again the Mississippi congressman puts himself in enviable light. How many other congressmen and senators do we see running home to pursue a law practice, or to deliver chautauque lectures, or just plainly to campaign for re-election?

Mr. Witherspoon has the correct concept. He has sold his time and his talents to the people of his district. He realizes his time is no longer his.

We venture the prediction that the Witherspoon idea is going to prove catching—and that people eventually will see that all of their servants are inoculated with it. Those whom it does not "take" upon are going to be sent to the detention camp—away from the vicinity of a salary.

ANOTHER CURED By LIV-VER-LAX

The City Commissioner of Terrell, Texas, a former Greenville citizen, writes:

"April 9, 1914.

"I take pleasure in saying for publication that by the use of Liv-Ver-Lax I have been cured of a disease which is correctly described by the recognized symptoms of Biliousness, Stomach and Liver Trouble, Constipation and resulting complications, and commend its use to all like sufferers."

George H. Jackson, L. E. Griffith, witness.

Mr. Jackson, like hundreds of others, has discovered the beneficial results of Liv-Ver-Lax, the wonderful vegetable Liver Tonic, harmless, safe for any child; has no injurious after-effects like cathartics. Pleasant to take; no nausea.

Take regularly and keep well. 50 cents and $1.00 at drugists or from Lebanon Co-Operative Medicine Co., Lebanon, Tenn.

AN AMERICAN ABROAD
From Collier's Weekly:
"We believe that even those persons who are hostile to Mr. Roosevelt's political activities can sink their political prejudices long enough to take pride in the fact that an American citizen who has recently visited England was talked about in these words, which are from the London Daily Mail.
"To those who have seen him in the last few days he has seemed, if anything, a shade more Rooseveltian, and therefore a shade more enthralling, than ever. His Brazilian experiences have thinned him somewhat, but he looks all the better for it. . . . Today finds him as fit and muscular as ever, the very incarnation of physical force and intensity. And in other ways, too, he is just the same, and perhaps a little more. The old confidence and dogmatism and masterfulness still stamp every word and gesture. He seems as time goes on to accumulate vitality instead of losing it. There is the same challenging rush into the theme of the moment, the same urgent, impulsive self-expression. His talk, . . . animated, . . . profuse, and unabating, has today as it has always had, something of the volume and vehemence, something also of the prismatic play of Niagara itself. He still snatches from every hour of life sixty brimming minutes of emotion, work, and play. Everything about him, he speaks a man armed, gleeful, volatile, and dominant, full of the joy of life and conflict, and hallowing everyone around him to see that he is having, in his own historic phrase, "a perfectly corking time." . . . And these from the Pall Mall Gazette:

"Mr. Roosevelt's visits are so refreshing that the shortness of his present stay is truly regrettable. The interests of life touch him at so many points as to make his political connections seem a mere detail. Compared with him, Gladstone, who was once regarded as encyclopedic, appears limited and professional. Few statesmen give such a convincing impression that they really care for the big things in human development and the world's destiny." It
W. H. Mills, of Abbeville, was here this morning on his way to Indian Springs, Ga., for a few days.
